Narrative

Officer Classification: Suspicious

On April 30th, 2018, I was dispatched to the Lory Student Center regarding a call of two suspicious males following a CSU student tour group. While enroute I called the reporting caller, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. She told me that she was with a CSU group which was touring the campus and had been on the tour for about 45 minutes when two males wearing all black clothing wandered into their group. [REDACTED] said the two followed the group for a few minutes without saying anything to anyone. According to [REDACTED] the CSU group leader (unidentified) asked the two males for their names but they would not acknowledge her. [REDACTED] told me that several people in the group were uncomfortable because the two boys were laughing and keeping to themselves and did not seem to be interested in the tour. [REDACTED] then called the police to try and figure out what was going on.

I was able to locate the group at the CSU Student Rec Center. A male in the group pointed out two males wearing black clothing. Officer Hurley and I approached the two males and I asked if I could speak with them to the side of the group for their privacy. They were identified as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. I explained that I had received a call about two males who had joined the group in progress. They stated that they had arrived late and were told to join the group. When I asked why they had refused to give their names to the group leader, they said they were shy. I explained that because they had refused to give their names, or speak to anyone, in addition to joining a group which had been in progress for 45 minutes, people were uncertain as to whether or not they actually had permission to be in the group. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said he had an email confirming his tour. He was able to pull up the email on his phone and showed me the email which confirmed the tour.

I explained to both subjects that if they had simply cooperated and given their names when asked and their situation about being late, that no one would have found them to be suspicious. Both subjects were permitted to rejoin the group.

Later, I was forwarded a phone call from dispatch from the mother of the [REDACTED]. She was upset and felt that her boys were being racially profiled. I explained to her that law enforcement is obligated to follow up on any call that we receive and that the reporting party was suspicious because of the boys' actions alone. Mrs. [REDACTED] asked me questions pertaining to CSU tour policy, but I explained that she would have to contact the admissions office for specific information regarding the tour. I provided her the general phone number for admissions and told her that if she did not get answers to her questions, to call me back and I would assist her.

I then went to the Admissions building (Ammons Hall) and by chance met with the original caller, [REDACTED]. She again reiterated the situation which was recorded on my body cam. I then met with an Admissions employee Megan BUSH. I informed her of the situation and my involvement.

My body cam video (18.0758.8001.1) was uploaded to evidence.com

OFFICER CLASSIFICATION: Supplement

EVIDENCE: 18-0758.7999.01

On 043018 I was called to assist Ofc. Hoisington with a report of two suspicious males in a tour group on CSU campus. Ofc. Hoisington told me to meet him at the CSU Rec Center (951 Meridian Avenue).

During the contact, one of the males kept putting his hands into his pockets, as what appeared to be a nervous habit, in his hoodie. Due to the inherent safety concern of the male putting his hands in his pockets, I patted the pockets down. Once I verified he had no weapons, I let him continue placing his hands in his pockets.

For the rest of the contact, I acted as a cover officer to Ofc. Hoisington.

This ends my involvement in this incident.

I uploaded my body camera footage into evidence.com under 18-0758.7999.01.
